ROSS'S BOND IS REDUCED TO $5000

Criminal Court of Appeals Holds That $20,000 Bond Was Excessive in Case of El Pasoan.

Austin, Tex., May 21.-In the case of x-parte L. E. Ross, from El Paso county, the court of criminal appeals today reversed the judgment of the district court. which had fixed the appellant's boud at $20,000, and granted a writ of habeas corpus reducing the bond of appellant to $5000.

Ross is charged with robbery by the grave, use of freezrms and on a trial of the case the jury failed to reach an agree-ment, after which the appellant applied for bail, which was fixed at $20,000. The court beld that this bond was excessive. and accordingly reduced it to the amount indicated above.

LOCAL FIRMS GET SCHOOL CONTRACTS

H. Nordwald & Co., an Ll Paso firm, was awarded by the school board the contract for furnishing 300 school desks and 250 folding chairs for the public schools. Emerson & Berrien, also a local company, received the contract for chairs. The local companies in the bid-ding competed with 15 outside companies. The total bid of the Nordwald company, being $775 for the desks and $350 for the chairs, was the lowest of any. Mrs. Dean was a Daughter of the Confederacy. Her father, who survives her, is of one of the most prominent New York families and was builling inspector of Ell Paso under mayors Jos. U. Sweeney, W. L. Hobinson and C. E. Reity.

Always interested in charitable work, Mrs. Dean was netive in the affairs of the Church of St. Chement and was at one time president of the Woman's Charity association.

Mr. Dean was a Daughter of the successful company's bid, the bid on the successful company's bid, the bid on the successful company's bid, the bid on the school desks was higher. Both the companies submitted samples of the folding chairs, and while the Nordwald chair was a little higher in price, it was preferred by the board. ## Nature's Gift from the Sunny South'

NO YOU know the difference between Cottolene and lard? Cottolene is a vegetable product; lard is an animal product. Cottolene is made from purest and choicest cotton oil, a product of Nature.

Lard-cooked foods tend to heat the system unduly, and cause discomfort and indigestion; Cottolene makes food rich but never greasy, and food which any stomach can digest with ease.

Cottolene

The better class of housewives often use butter instead of lard for cooking purposes. It's a mighty expensive and needless habit. Cottolene is every bit as good as butter for shortening; it is better than butter for frying. And Cottolene costs much less than butter.

Cottolene will not burn nearly as easily as butter or lard, and with its use the strong, irritating and indigestible acids found in foods fried in animal fats are avoided. Two-thirds of a pound of Cottolene will go as far as a full pound of butter or lard.

Just think these facts over and let them sink in. Then order a
